

Guidelines for Community Matters Email Group
Run by and for members and friends of the Main Line Unitarian Church

Mission

To promote communications and community among Main Line Unitarian Church (MLUC) members, friends, ministers, and staff, in a way that is true to our MLUC Mission Statement: “Together, we transform lives through love, service, and our welcoming faith.”

Purpose

- To stimulate exchange of ideas relating to our church and our spiritual journey.
- To promote communication about MLUC events and news.
- To provide a community exchange of information including, but not limited to, requests for assistance, offers of goods or services, and recommendations for service providers.
- To facilitate invitations to events or websites that may be of interest to other Community Matters members.
- To disseminate personal information, such as births, illnesses, and the like.

Covenant

As members of Community Matters we will treat each other with respect at all times, writing with kindness and courtesy. We demonstrate that respect by agreeing to the following:

- Sign our full name on each post.
- Choose a meaningful subject line for each post.
- Use “Reply All” judiciously.
- Speak only for ourselves.
- Share details about someone else only with their express permission..
- Limit commercial self-promotion.

Governance

The current members of the Steering Committee are Sally Fritzson (Chair), Rich Fritzson, Bob Goodman, Ken Gross, Ann Keech, Eileen Moran, Jeff Moran, Priscilla Osgood, Mary Stromquist, Frank Weber, and Judy Wilson. Rich, Bob, and Frank are administrators and will manage the technical aspects of the group, including adding new members.

Access

Community Matters is open to anyone in the MLUC Directory as well as MLUC ministers and staff. Members of the group will be indicated in the MLUC Directory PDF. The list of members will not be shared with any outside entities.
