Ministerial Search Committee FAQ

1. Can I recommend Myself?
   A: Yes.

2. How many individuals can I recommend for the committee?
   A: The form allows for up to 6 names but you can make multiple submissions.

3. What is the deadline for submitting recommendations?
   A: March 27, 2022.

4. Is the form confidential?
   A: Yes, it will not be shared with the nominee or outside of the Nominating Committee.

5. Can I serve on another committee while I’m on the SMSC?
   A: No, the SMSC requires your full energy and attention. You will need to resign your committee assignments.

6. Who decides the final makeup of the SMSC?
   A: The congregation will vote up or down on the slate of nominees, not individual members. The slate will be developed by the Nominating Committee using criteria listed on the recommendation form, recommendations from the UUA, from interviews of nominees, and using feedback from members who recommend candidates.

7. When will we hear the results?
   A: In May or early June.
